PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. James David Ford, D.D., offered the following prayer:

We are grateful, O God, for those people who devote their energies to the public good and who use the natural gifts that come from Your hand in ways that promote justice and freedom in our land.

On this special day we mourn the death of our former Speaker, Carl Albert, and offer our condolences to those that were near and dear to him. We recall his devotion to this institution, the House of Representatives, and his commitment to the ideals of this assembly and his sense of fairness and respect to those who served with him. We laud the strength of his intellect and the power of the words that he used to present his values and beliefs. As a leader who was elected by his peers to the highest position of responsibility, we remember with gratitude the strength of his character and the wisdom of his ways.

May Your blessing, O God, that is new every morning and with us until the end of the day, be with those who mourn his death, even as we celebrate the witness of his life. Amen.

BUDGET OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT, FISCAL YEAR 2001—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES (H. DOC. NO. 106-162)

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States; which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on Appropriations and ordered to be printed:

To the Congress of the United States:

The 2001 Budget, which I am submitting to you with this message, is the fourth balanced budget of my Administration. This budget upholds my policy of fiscal discipline and promises new opportunity for our Nation.

We have made great progress in the last seven years, rejecting the fiscal disarray of an earlier era and in its place, asserting a steadfast commitment to live within our means, balance the budget, and uphold fiscal discipline. As a result, we have created the conditions for unprecedented prosperity. The longest peacetime economic expansion in American history has produced more than 20 million new jobs. Unemployment has hit its lowest level in a generation. Today, more Americans own their own homes than ever before in our Nation's history.

Our success in reversing what once seemed to be uncontrollable growth in the Federal budget deficit has created more than prosperity. We have restored to America a spirit of purpose and confidence. This is a rare moment in history. Few nations are blessed with a combination of economic prosperity and social stability at home and with the security of a relatively peaceful world. It is time to make the most of this moment of promise to extend prosperity to all corners of our Nation.

My first budget of the new century is built upon a commitment to expanding
